INTIMATION MAN A

clause was violated, and its intention frustrated, is also history. The "Société Asiatique" got control by acquiring the bulk of the stock, and once more the monkey-wiles became apparent. The abandonment of the strong opposition to the American negotiations was partly explained. The new diplomacy was subtler, less obvious, less likely to be checkmated in time. That it was this change from poli-

American insistence, which permitted the contract to go through, was suspected in 1899, when General WHITTIER, King

LEOPOLD's "tool," was buying the shares;

and became a matter of conviction early this year, when the new proprietors laid their cards on the table. As the Times sums it up, General WHITTIER has become the president, in the room of Mr. Parsons, who has been forced to resign; the board has been made overwhelmingly Belgian, and includes M. Devolder, a Belgian Senator and ex-Minister, Colonel Thrs, of Congo notoriety, and M. Mari, the Belgian Consul lized as an American subject. The result is that it is now working in unconcented sympathy with the concessionaires of the northern half of the trunk line. The status of the southern syndicate is still a matter of argument, and, fortunately for China and for us, before the two Belgian groups can amalgamate, the effect of CHANG CHIH-rung's providential clause must still be put to the test. The schemers have been profuse in accusations of "bad faith" against

China, but in face of such a transparent violation of a clearly expressed stipulation, it seems to us that China would be perfectly justified in cancelling the bargain. It is what OTHELLO called "hypocrisy against the devil" to deny that the proviso has been disregarded, and on the most technical legal issue it will be sur-

right of American protection to a concern which is admittedly mostly Belgian property, and managed by a board of which the majority consists of Belgians or Belgian nominees, to say nothing of the hands that are pulling the Belgian strings in this matter. America would be a catspaw of a catspaw if the curious contention, were to be established. Gene.al WHITTIER has American concession, should the American

ates it, and the only ground for it is a letter written by SHENG, without authority, promising the syndicate reversionary rights in the event of the preliminary Washington contract not being definitely concluded.

Honggong, October 13th, 1904.

THERE are more wars than those accompanied by long lists of casualties, by complaints of correspondents, and by mendecious telegrams. The Times last month published a very long article from its Shanghai correspondent dealing with "the details of the long, silent struggle!' for the possession of the Canton-Hankow Railway. The venue of this struggle has been alternately Washington, New York, Brussels, Peking and Shanghai, and the intrigues have continued for six years. The original thought of Chang Unin-Tung and Sheng TA-JEN, in memorialising for the Peking-Hankow line, was to build it with Chinese money, but the funds were not forthcoming. "The American Washburn's" conditions were too hard, so SHENG, the Director-General of Chinese Railways, approached Belgium. The idea was that Belgium could safely be given a concession, that country being too small to be likely to make political use of any such privilege. Whatever suspicions prompted our Government to protest at the time, it has since become notorious that the Belgian Syndicate was a catspaw for France and Russia, and that our influence in the sphere of the Yang-tsze has been threatened with an objectionable line of communication between Russia on the north and France in the south, an objectionable bisection which our Government did not oppose with half the vigour or resolution we should have liked. Before that was finally "rushed through," by the late La Hung-chang, an American syndicate had arranged to finance the Hankow-Canton line, a concession for which the Belgians had also bid. Here again the Chinese felt safe, believing that America was no territory hunter; and to make assurance doubly sure the famous clause was inserted forbidding the concessionnaires to transfer their rights "to other nations or people of other nationality." How that Tamar.

Mr. H. Price, of Messrs. Price & Co., has returned to the Colony.

Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Harston arrived from home by the German mail yesterday morning.

The s.s. Derment has gone into the Cosmopolitan Dock to undergo a survey. The Bourbon goes into dock for repairs at Kowloon to-day.

The Fathomer is at present under the sheer legs having her machinery installed. She will probably be ready for her trial trip in about a tical to financial machinery, and not

> A correspondent at Dortmund states that Krupp's, of Essen, are working day and night in manufacturing new guns for Japan and Russia. There are two special rooms, one for the Russian and another for the Japanese officers and designers or draughtsmen. Several new patterns of guns are in process of manufacture, one of a calibre hitherto unknown, and with a special arrangement for accelerating the speed of the projectile.

Science, it is said, has no nationality. I existing circumstances, observes a London journal, it is at least courteous on the part of the Imperial Russian Geographical Society to present to the Geographical Society of London fifty photographs of Lhassa and other places in and 1901. The photographs were placed on Club's gymnasium next Saturday evening. exhibition in London.

The Peking Times learns that Tieh Liang has stopped the smokeless powder factory in Shanghai and half the men have been reduced to half pay just to retain them for future employment. No more new materials will be purchased for ammunition and all old stocks used up. but-the Tls. 800,000 recently withdrawn by Tieh Liang from the Kiangnang Arsenal will be invested in imported ammunition," ready made. This is quicker than munufacturing it in Shanghai. The italics used by our contemporary look somewhat alarming.

Referring to our Game Preservation Ordinance and the recent Amendment Bill, the Shanghai Mercury says:-Some such regulation is very sorely needed in Shanghai, where young game can be had in any quantity in the public markets during the close season. A resident writes that he has been buying pheasants since the middle of September from the Hongkew market, and from all appearances these birds must liave been trapped. What a grand prospect for sportsmen during the incoming season, especially when all the country around Shanghai seems to have been completely shot over for the last few years.

Some friction has arisen between the Governor of Che-kiang and the French Consul-General at Shanghai with regard to the desire of a French merchant to run steam launches between Shanghai and Shao-hsin Fu. The Consul insists that there is no such danger as the Chinese officials are afraid of because the another argument, that the northern Belgian syndicate has "a right of reversion in the promoter of the company has himself surveyed the waterways and finds them quite suitable for the purpose. He asks the Governor to sorm concessionaires fail to carry it." That is the Customs Tactai that the compar will soon not true. The Chinese Government repudi- be established. The matter will probably bereferred to Peking.

Recently a letter was received by the Customs Taotai at Shanghai from the Consul-General for the United States asking permission for the American warships to go to Hsiang-Shan Bay in Chengkiang for gun practice and cruising purposes, the place being under the jurisdiction of the Customs Taotai at Ningpo. The matter was referred to him for decision, but in reply he out of court, because the eventuality we says that if the American warships can be have italicised did not come about. The stopped from going there so much the better : if not, then no sailors or marines shall be allowed to go ashore, there must be no gun practice, and at the same time. SHENG is now more sufficient time must be given so that the magisthan suspect. The Shanghai correspondent trate may be able to issue proclamations for the information of the populace, and so prevent of the Times says there is good reason for disturbances.

Thus the Times of Ceylon :- Straits papers to hand call attention to the fact that Sir Frank Swettenham has retired on the largest pension ever earned by an officer of the Straits Settlements. The paragraph is as follows:in this southern trunk line. And, if the "Sir Frank Swettenham, after 33 years' service, bound for the North; having come from draws as pension $10,500 per annum, said to be | Ch'en-tu-fu (Si-ch'uan) overland to Tonkin. the highest given to any civil servant of the Colony since the Crown took it in 1867." taking as an American corporation, the fact it is not so good as it looks. AN OTTER CAUGHT. An otter was caught by some fishermen a few days ago. I am told it was taken to the market and retailed for consumption. As it is not an animal commonly seen here, it soon attracted a crowd of onlookers who were eager to have a peep at the strange creature.

TRAVELLERS. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Little were passengers on board the s.s. Hue on the 23rd ultime.

another fortune-teller was struck by lightning. He was in the act of taking down his cloth signboard, hanging outside his door, when he was struck and killed instantaneously. The St. Petersburg Bourse Gazette has received a telegram from Mukden, dated the 9th instant, stating that the main army of the Japanese is retiring to the south, abandoning not only the positions occupied cast annoying shadows. At 200 yards after the battle of Liacyang, but some which they had occupied before. The right wing has fallen back ten miles to the south in the last few days, evacuating Sian-chiang, Saimatse, Fuechulang and other posts. It is reported that the Japanese withdrew without a struggle.

This is interpreted in St. Petersburg as indicating a decision to concentrate every available man on the immediate defence of Lisoyang. General Kuropa:kin is taking with a "bull," perhaps drawing with an every precaution against defeat, and is constructing numerous defences along his line of advance.

FINANCIAL EXPEDIENTS IN

TOKYO, 6th October. The Premier, as already announced, addressed the meeting of Governors yesterday, and the Finance Minister entertained them at tiffin to-day. He said that he was satisfied with the successful flotation of the last two series of exchequer bonds, and hoped for the same result for the forthcoming issue of eighty million yen. He defied any anxiety as to the economic conditions. There had been no considerable MacEwen. increase in the currency, but the export trade was vaster than in 1903.

The expenses in 1905 would be greater than in 1904, though he was unable to make a definite statement. Increased taxation would be resorted to, but there was a limit to its resources, and it would be necessary to raise the bulk of the necessary funds by the issue of public bonds. He urged local economies and the encouragement of foreign trade.

INTERPORT SHOOTING.

HONGKONG AND SINGAPORE'S SCORES

A wire was received yesterday giving Singapore's score in the Interport Shooting Contest. It was 919. The Hongkong team shot off yesterday afternoon, and made exactly the same number (919) of marks; so, according to Bisley rules, the team which scored the most at 600 yards is the winner—that is, if the Penang team, yet to shootdoes not go higher. The competition so far stands as fo lows :--

Hongkong Shanghai.

Yesterday afternoon firing commenced at the Naval and Association Range, Kowloon, at about a quarter to three. As Mr. J. Parks was substituted by Sergt Davies, R.M.L.I., the team was as follows :--

Sergt. Thornhill, R.E.; Sergt. Davies. R.M.L.I.; Corpl. MacEwen, R.E.; Lieut. Dumball, S.F.; and Messrs. R. Lapsley, G. P. Lammert, A. Watson, F. W. Penning, J. Andrew and F. Penning.

The umpires were: Major Chapman, H.K.V.C., for Straits Settlements; Capt. Macdonald, for Shanghai; and Major Pritchard, for Hongkong. The shooting was superintended by Lieut. Mowbray S. Northcote, H.K.V.C., secretary of the Hongkong Rifle Association.

The firing consisted of one sighting shot and seven shots at each range-200, 500 and 600 yards. Bull's-eyes counted five marks, four for an inner, three for a magpie, and two for an outer. The 209 yards bull's-eye was seven inches in diameter; while that of the 500 and 600 yards targets was 20 inches in diameter When shooting from 200 yards and 500 yards the conditions were excellent, there being scarcely any wind and a good steady light. Though the sky was perfectly cloudless; the sun was not too glaring. When at 600 yards, however, the wind freshened up somewhat; while the sun, not shining directly on to the target, 319 marks were made; and 310 at 500 yards. From this distance Mr. G. P. Lammert made the highest possible. On retiring to the 600 yard range the competitors were quite confident of beating Singapore they had only to average 29 apince for a tie. While the shooting was going on the competitors not engaged and spectators alike repeatedly stamped their feet as " magpies " turned up, and in mockery, as it were, numbers of the real magpies flew across the range. When, however, Mr. A. Watson scored 34, glee returned. It was very exciting indeed—especially when, at the last moment, everyone strained their eyes for the final signal. It was a case of winning inner," or losing with a "magpie." An "inner" was scored. The tables of detailed

THE CHINESE QUEUE QUESTION.

The report that the Government of Peking had decreed that uniform of foreign design shall in future be worn by men in the Imperial military services, and that they should also dispense with the wearing of queues, proves to be incorrect. It is true that a proposal to this effect has been submitted to the Government by a body of students who have recently returned from Japan, and the question has aroused much discussion among the mandarins in Peking. Intelligence from the capital received by the Chung Ngoi San Po states that many of the mandarins, notably Viceroy Yuen ! bring the proposal before the Emperor.

THE MISSING ATTACHES.

A most remarkable allegation or suspicion is buying new crops, the prices of which looked advanced by a Japanese journal, in relation to reasonable. An advance was the consequence the disappearance of the German and Russian | which even the exceptionally good stand of the attachés who left Port Arthur some weeks ago cotton fields of 91,5 as given by the September and have not since been heard of. It is there report of the Agricultural Bureau in Washingstated that the Russian authorities at Port ton failed to arrest. New cotton coming in Arthur refuse to permit foreigners in the city more slowly than had been predicted gave some either to witness the operations or to leave the colouring to the less favourable accounts of the port, lest the situation of affairs should become crop, and the different markets being heavily known to the Japanese and the outside world. Moreover, if the Russians find themselves unable to prevent a foreigner from leaving, they do not hesitate to send anyone attempting escape to the bottom of the sea, by which, it is to be presumed, is meant that the Russians fire on a junk suspected of conveying a refugee and sink it. It is added that the disappearance of certain foreign attachés may be explained in this way. This appears a very serious charge to be made simply on suspicion. As regards permission to leave the zone of operations at Port Arthur. the action of the Japanese is not very different from that of the Russians in this respect. It is even reported that one of the correspondents with the Japanese forces at Port Arthur has been positively refused permission to leave. notwithstanding that he has been recalled by the journal which engaged him. HAMBURG.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.

Hamburg, 6th September. Cotton being an article of world-wide interest a retrespective glance at the season that has just come to a close may be welcome to some of your readers, all the more as it has been one of the most memorable on record. It opened with smaller stocks in all the markets than any of its predecessors for the last ten years and more, whilst the trade had been buying sparingly durbeen pretty bare of cotton. Strong hopes however were entertained at the time of abundant crops both in the United States and India were Mr. d'Almada in opening the case said very favourable. Consequently, after corner report for the month of September stated the stand to be only 65.4! The decline brought had been selling heavily all along, to cover. Operators in America were not slow to avail themselves of the opportunity a return of confidence and the increasing strength of the statistical position of the article presented to force up pric s. On Feb. 1 of this year middling Amer. was quoted close upon 9d. in small one would be a veritable calamity. Liverpool, when they began to unload, others anxious to secure profits following suit. Prices dropped over a ponny in about a week! In spite however of the predictions of the hear party, receipts in America continued to remain behind those of the previous year and crop for sa'e within market limits, was fined $5 for estimates were ranging as low down as 10 of its inhabitants as yesterday, on the occasion million bales and less. The bulls led by Mr. Sully in New York returned to the charge, and by the beginning of March nearly the whole of the lost ground had been recovered, and who knows how much farther the advance might not have been carried, but for a feeling of uneasiness that was gradually spreading in commercial circles in consequence of the outbrak of war in the Far East and for the action of spinners in Lancashire who, having become fully alive to the inadequacy of supplies O'Brien said he had signed on to a ship's for the remainder of the season, not only adopted short time themselves, but addressed an appeal to the trade in the United States and on the Continent to make common cause with them. The former responded readily, but in Europe

it was less successful, for, wiser than their

British colleagues, spinners abroad had taken advantage of the comparatively low prices

ruling in the autumn to contract for cotton far ahead, and being now well supplied saw no reason to curtail production. In Russia and Poland, however, mills were compelled to run shorter hours, and in many instances to stop altogether, as a number of their hands were called out for military service and the growing stringency in the money market affected trade most seriously. Re-sales of cotton for Russian account began to be made and were continued off and on during the summer.

All this tended to check speculation, and when Mr. Sully succumbed in the middle of March all efforts to revive a bullish feeling proved futile, and the accounts of the growing crop in the States becoming more and more promising as the summer advanced, bears got the whip-hand. Prices receded, middling Amer. which in March stood at 8.70, in Liverpool was quoted below 6d. in July. Then a turn came; business began to improve both in Lancashire and on the Continent, a fair demand was experienced, chiefly for India and the East, and sales of yarns and goods were made well into the new year at prices based on the low rates at which winter cotton could then be bought. The trade from shoer exhaustion of their holdings were obliged to augment their purchases, the more prudent amongst spinners, particularly on the Continent, oversold, bulls found little difficulty in producing a scare amongst the bears, which eventually carried prices to about #d. above the lowest rates paid, the season closing with middling at 6.72 in Liverpool and at 11.50 in New York. The last Bureau Report of the 2nd inst. indicating a stand of 84.1, whereas 80 or less had been generally expected, however, put a stop to the upward movement and caused prices to give way some 40 points in the American markets and about 30 in Liverpool. As to the future course of the article opinion are more divided than ever, bears asserting that with a largely increased acreage and a stand of 84 a bumper crop is in view-I refrain from mentioning the figures some of them put forward-whilst the bulls, and amongst them some of the most conservative houses, maintain

10,100,000 Bs in 1903/1904 10,970,000 Bs in 1902/ we are struck by the fact that the production of cotton goods has remained stationary, or to be more correct has declined, although the population of the world has gone on increasing and new markets with extensive "hinterlands" have been opened to the trade. Is it not fair then to conclude that stocks must have run very low everywhere and that great gaps remain to be filled, even if no account be taken of the enormous wastage which is being occasioned by the Russo-Japanese war ? If this be so, every bale of cotton America can produce will be required, and it remains to be seen how large a crop can under the most favourable circumstances be raised and picked in the States. In spite of more land having been put under cotton every year the yield during the last four seasons has become smaller, which would seem to point to the existence factors that have counteracted the increase of acreage. Whether it be that the seed has deteriorated, or that a change in the climatic conditions has taken place, or that insects and in the trade and caused speculators, who so far other vermin are causing the damage, or that there is a scarcity of labour, must be left to experts to decide; the question is whether one or all are still in operation, and what their effect will be on the crop that is now maturing. THE LATE LAFCADIO HEARN.

In the brief account of the late Mr. Lafcadio Hearn which is given in the Japan Gazette on announcing his death, it is stated that when he was at Matsue in Izumo "he embraced Shintoism, the locality being the seat of the famous Izumo Shinto temple." This is quite erroneous, The curious observances of the Shinto doctrine attracted the mystic side of Mr. Hearn's temperament; he devoted much attention to the subject, and had interviews with some of the most important priests of the calt, it being probably only his lack of knowledge of Japanese literature and philology which prevented him from publishing a work devoted to this interesting autochthonous creed. But as to his being a believer in Shintoism in the ordinary sense attaching to the term believer, that is a mistake Buddhism attracted him as much as Shintoism, but, notwithstanding the strain of mysticism in his character, he was an Agnostic and a disciple of Herbert Spencer, to whom, if we are not mistaken, he dedicated one of his early books. Mr. Hearn had a remarkably retentive memory, and in a few minutes would put his finger on any passage in Herbert Spencer's voluminous works that seemed to bear upon his subject. It was, he used to say, the inside view of Catholicism which he had as pupil of a Jesuit college that first showed him the hollowness of the orthodox teaching. Though an Agnostic, the legends both of Shintoism and Buddhism had great attraction for him, and they have provided him with not a little material for idealistic studies .-Kobe Chronicle.

COTTON CULTIVATION IN GERMAN COLONIES.

A report by the French Chargé d'Affaires a' Berlin furnishes some details of the results of the efforts made by the German Colonial German colonies.

The programme drawn up by the Committee appears to have been most effectively carried out. The cotton grown in Togoland has shown a marked improvement, due to the excellent work carried out at the Tove experimental stations and the cotton-growing school at Noustche. According to estimates furnished by the cotton inspectors, the production for 1904 will amount to 200,000lbs. The area sown has been increased fivefold during the year, and it is hoped that next year's crops will difficulty-which has hitherto hampered the development of the cotton industry-will be met by the construction of a railway from Lome to Palime, for which the necessary funds have been voted by the Reichstag. There are at the present time 2,000 hectares under cotton in German East Africa; until the Nyassa Railway is completed, it will be impossible to cultivate the Kilwa district, which comprises 100,000 hectares of land suitable for cotton-growing. The German Colonial Committee are taking steps to carry out a vast scheme of cultivation on the banks of the Rufidji, which is navigable for a distance of .50 kilometr s In this colony, as in Togoland, the lack of means of transport has proved a hindrance to development. The construction of a railway from Dar-es-Salaam to Mrogoro, which has been sanctioned by the Reichstig, will open up the central districts; but no steps have yet been taken towards the construction of the suggested line from Kilwa to Nyassa, which would give a strong impetus to cotton cultivation.

As last year, three steamship companies have offered to convey to Germany, free of charge. all cotton grown in Togoland and German East Africa; the amount in 12 months thus transported was 140,000lbs.; this has been distribut-

MALACCA COULIES' STRIKE.

Malacca has had cause to realise the value of its ricksha pullers, for recently the "chief describes the coolies as a class-suddenly decided to go on strike. The men on receiving their licenses were given identification tickets and badges, without which no one was allowed to propel a ricksha. The coolies used to exchange these tickets and ladges, often with the result that a certificate granted to a young and healthy puller got into the hands of a man old and decrepit and utterly unfit for the work. The municipal authorities discovered this system of transfer and raised objections, the result being that some of the coolies were brought before the magistrate; fined, and their vehicles ordered to be confiscated. A petition was made to the Governor, but it was returned, and the coolies one and all determined to go on strike, most of them leaving their rickshas to go and work on the railway. Eventually, on a promise being made that the complaints and requests of the ricksha owners would be considered at a special meeting of the Municipal Commission, the strike onded and the coolies resumed their business.

MRS. BROWN-POTTER'S EMOTIONAL GOWNS.

The news that the gowns to be worn by Mrs. Brown-Potter in her new play at the Savoy will be so disigned as to assist the actress in expressing her emotions, sent one of the Daily Graphic's representatives to the Savoy to learn, if possible, some further facts about these wonderful dresses. At the time, however, very little was known even there about the gowns, for they were not yet made. It may be, of course, that Lady Duff-Gordon, who is designing the dresses, has not quite mistored the art of expressing emotion in silk, or it may be that Mrs. Brown-Potter has not yet decided what particular emotions she would like her dresses to exhibit. The information imparted was that the emotional gowas were to be four in number, and that two of them were to be of the most extraordinary and weird colourings -more especially the gown that is to be worm in the first act. This will express emotion by means of both its colour and its desi n. The dress to be worn in the second not will be un. usually gorgeous, because that is a reception act. -Finally-and this, perhaps, is the most important point of all -it was said that all the four gawas designed specially for Mrs. Brown. CEYLON TEA FOR RUSSIA-DUTY FREE

The Liverpool Journal of Commerce, in an issue to hand by the last mail, gives prominent publication to a rumour, which, if based on truth, will change the position of Ceylon tea in Russia in a very marked way. The following eis the paragraph referred to: -

"A report is current in Odessa that it is intended to make that city a free port for a number of years."

Since August, 1903, the enhanced Russian duty on tea has handicapped Ceylon tea very materially in Russia, and the war closing the cheaper access via Dalny added to the burden. If the rumour is well-founded, the intelligence will be welcome to Ceylon.

Mr. Tehekeff, who is in constant touch with the Russian market and ships largely to Odessa, was surprised at the announcement, and is not inclined to lend credence to it.

Mr. W. Shakspeare, of Messrs. Carson & Co.—a firm which ships much tea to Russia from India and Ceylon -has not heard of the proposed experiment, but he agrees that the Liverpool Journal of Commerce is a wel informed paper and not at all likely to give currency to idle and irresponsible rumours. The prominent position which the news occupies in the paper indicates that there is more truth Committee to fester cotton cultivation in the in the statement than is believed in Colombo .-Ceylon Times. .

CHANG-CHIH-TUNG'S ADVICE.

Under pressure from the British Minister the Wai-wu-pu has telegraphed to H.E. Viceroy Chang Chih-tung to inform him that a telegram has been received at Peking from the British Consul at Li-chang to the effect that owing to the recent murder of a Roman Catholic priest at Chih-pan Fu in Ha-pei by native bandits, the Catholic converts have circulated groundless rumours that the Christians caused the bandits to commit the murder, and adding that they produce 1,000 bales of 500lbs. The transport will take revenge. Vicercy Chang has therefore issued a proclamation commanding the local authorities in the various districts to do their best to p ctect the Protestant Christians and preserve peace among the converts of the two religious. He adds that the trouble was raised entirely by ignorant and evil persons at Chih-nan, and owes its origin to some small disputes between the two parties at that time, and had nothing to do with the Pro'e tint Christians. As the two religions sprang from the same God he confidently advises the followers of both beli-fs to live in harmony with each other instand of making false accusations, because the objects of the two missions are to exhort people to follow in the path of virtue, and to treat one another like brothers, and it will be shameful if the converts of both missions cannot live in peace between themselves. H. E. concludes by saying that constables and runners have been sent out to capture the ringleders responsible for the late riots, and they will be severely punished when apprehended. But if any converts of either mission make groundless ac usations against each other, or do anything d trimental to the peace of the place, they will also be punished because they are still Chi. ese subjects and amenable to the laws of the country, although they have become converts of foreign missions which can do nothing to protect them. - Tientsin Official Gazette.

SUPPLY OF WELSH COAL TO RUSSIAN CRUISERS.

Writing to the Standard from the Athenseum Club, Professor W. Boyd Dawkins said :-SIR,-The news forwarded from Las Palmas, by Renter's Agency on August 25, relating to the supply of our smokeless steam coal to the Russian cruisers, should rouse the indignation of all who care for the welfare of the British Empire. It is to the effect that three Russian cruisers have been sighted off Cape Juby coaling from the German steamer Valcsia. This ship left Cardiff for Las Palmas on August 10, with 2,600 tons of smokeless steam coal-an instalment of from 60, 00 to 80,000 tons bought for the Russian Government. mostly through German firms. It may, perhaps, form part of a contract for 200,000 tons made for delivery to Russia in the months of August and September. In any case, it is being used to equip the Russian cruisers now engaged in the attempt to destroy our commerce. The Russian Government has well-known agents in this country, mostly hailing from Germany, through whom their Navy has been supplied from our South Welsh coalfield for many years.

How long are we to bear with the apathy of the Government in this matter? The situation is this-Sir Lees Knowles has in vain pleaded in Parliament the urgent necessity of legislation to secure for our own Navy now, and for the future, an ample supply of smokeless steam coal, and to restrict its use by foreign Navies. He was met by evasive answers, among which we may note one-that the Government must wait until the Report of the Commission on Coal Supplies is handed in. The evidence hearing on the point has been already published in a Bluebook, and is open to the world. It is now available for the purposes of the Government, But more than this, I gather from the ruling of the Chairman of the Commission, in the course of the evidence, that the means to be taken to ensure an ample supply for our own ships, and to block the export to foreign Navies, does not, in his opinion, come within the instructions to the Commission. There is, therefore, very little balm, if any, to be found in that Gilead. Between the two stools the interests of the Empire at large are likely to fall to the ground. The testimony of the Director of Contracts to the Navy, and of other witnesses, leaves no room to doubt the following facts: -1. That in South Wales there is the supply of smokeless steam coal in Europe. 2. That it is very limited in quantity. 3. That it is being worked with. scandalous waste. 4. That our Navy is absolutely dependent upon it, using about one out of 13 millions produced in 1902-3 by the collieries on their list. 5. That when it is exhausted our Navy will have to depend upon inferior fuel, unless Mr. Micawber's principle of "something else turning up" comes true. It may be added, further, that no distinction is made in the Government Returns as to coal supply between this rare smokeless steam coal and the common coals used for steam purposes. In consequence it is impossible for anyone to realise from them our dangerous position with regard to the future supply of the best possible fuel to our Navy. In the Press, Mr. Thomas, myself, and others have repeatedly urged the danger of this situation, and the unpardonable folly of allowing our monopoly of the most valuable munition in Naval warfare not only to be wasted in the pit, but to be used against us by our rivals, who are straining every nerve to wrest from us the mastery of the sea. We are meeting them by building two ships against their one, and are at the same time allowing their ships to be equipped, out of our limited stores, with the most perfect fuel in the world.

It is only nece-sary, in my opinion, to bring the general situation home to the people to induce them to compel the Government to give up their attitude of lairser faire. Action should be taken at once, on the ground that smokeless steam coal is contraband of war, in the same sense as cordite and artillery. In any case, it is our duty, as citizens of the Empire, to make this question a plank in the next elec-that those in middle places would forego the chance to secure the unusual squeezes thus made the mention in the native press inchronicling the death of Wang-Wen-shao, some time tutor to. the Emperor, whose degradation after the coup d'état was so much talked of, that just before his death he learned of his pardon, and died happy in thought. Another has been the release of Wang Chow, the reformer mentioned in my former letter. He, also, although reported at the time to have incurred the great enmity

This odict created consternation enough in AGENTS for the above Company are have since followed have stirred them up even propared to accept Risks against Fire at current more, and little else is being talked about aunt, issued a decree deploring the sufferings of the people, and pointing out that from time and their officials to ameliorate their condition officials, from the highest in the land to the to the changes which have been forced lowest, were commanded to look carefully into the affairs of the districts under their care, to she is now convinced that changes are an dismiss the incompetent, to recommend men of ability for posts, and, above all, endeavour to out down expenses, so that the burdens of the people might be lightened. Similar exhortations have appeared under the Imperial sign-manual times without number before, and nothing has come of them. Those addressed appeared in danger of treating this in the same way, putting it down as the usual effort to save face. What was the dismay, therefore, when another edict, on the same basis, appeared in the Gazette, reprimanding the Viceroys and Tartar-Generals for not having made reports on the lines desired, and further showing an earnest of the intentions of the Empress Dowager by ordering the abolition of two of the "fattest" offices of the Court circles, namely, that of Hoppe of Canton, and the corresponding office under the Viceroy of the Liang-kinng Provinces. It also consolidated the management of the two Imperial silk looms, one at Soochow and one at Nanking, the director of the latter being dismissed. the reins only temporarily after the coup d'état, Canton that it has invariably been given to and it must be evident to all that the position. some Manchu noble of the Court, who was of ruler of such a country as China, where the allowed only one year of its perquisites, that Imperial will is absolute, must be a difficult one being sufficient to set him and his family up for a woman of seventy. That it will mean even among the spendthrifts of the Palace much to China, as well as to the nations that clique. Its handing over to the Viceroy of the now have relations with this country, goes withtwo Kwangs probably presages either greater demands from the Court from his funds, or the inanguration of such reforms as will make the having dealings with the leaders of the present post little remunerative-probably the former. The similar position at Nauking was worth nothing like the same amount, but it was still one of the plums which fell to members of the Court, and its abolition spells the end of hopes in many hearts. The direction of the silk looms is also a sinecure, though the chances there are nothing like on a par with those of the other offices. But the worst of these orders is that they appear to show that the Empress Dowager is determined this time to make alterations, and this becoming evident, we may feel sure that the Viceroys and Tartar-Generals. to whom more especially the first decree was addressed, will at least pretend to put her commands into effect now. Those who have the slightest acquaintance with the number of useless officials which clog the wheels of government in China can easily imagine the flutter this last order has caused in the dovecots so long left peacefully alone.

By another edict issued last month another indication is given that the Empress Dowager is at last sincere in some at least of her proclamations. This being the 70th anniversary of her birth-an occasion that in the least of Chinese families is made much of-it has been thought that big celebrations would certainly take place in Peking. Early in the year, in answer to a prayer from the dutiful Emperor that he be allowed to organise suitable festivities, the Empress forbade any special ceremonies, alleging that the troubles through which the country was passing rendered such rejoicings unseemly. This, however, was regarded as only customary. On two or three occasions since the same sentiments have been expressed, but the officials in all With CHAMSER for 10 CARTRED ES parts of the Empire steadily continued to gather together the necessary presents for the occasion. But some weeks ago the Emperor, acting by command of the actual ruler, issued with POWERFUL SALVAGE PLANT an edict, again reciting the terrible condition

But mark the additional of relenting towards the Reformers whose sign of determination! Now, however, the possible. Among other evidences of this was circumstances are not the same, and she assures all and sandry that the same reasons will not induce her to change her mind on this occasion. Whatever, therefore, it was the intention of the officials to offer her on her birthday, she now commands to be used for the betterment of the condition of the people at large, and especially of those in the districts in charge of the individuals concerned. In order to give this effect, the advice given him by the so-called Reformers the interval she has reason to hope that he has so that he will not attempt such violent measures as he then did. BILIOUS FOR 25 YEARS. BILE BEANS MAKE A COMPLETE CUER

Twenty-five years mean a large part of a man's life. If you slept the whole of that time at a stretch you would naturally feel that you had wasted a great part of your existence, yet time spent in pain and suffering that unfits you for thinking and working is worse than wasted, and a great many lives are blighted in that way which might be made happy and useful by using Chas. Forde's Bile Beans as a cure and preventive of biliousness, liver complaint, indigestion, constipation, and various other complaints, caused by disorder of the liver and digestive

Mr. W. H. Norish, a farm labourer, residing at Burraton, Stoke Climsland, Callington, Cornwall, England, suffered mo t severely for this length of time in consequence of frequent bilious attacks. He has now been made well and strong by using Bile Beans and fs entirely free from any trace of biliousness. To a "Liskeard Weekly Mercury" reporter he recently disclosed the facts of his case and the manner of his wonderful restoration to health. "I have suffered from b'liousness" he said. "ever since I was a boy, and for twenty-five years I have not been in a really healthy condition. The attacks would commence with sick headache, accompanied in a short time by severe vomiting. These attacks succeeded each other at short intervals and sometimes lasted five or six hours at a time. I consulted the club doctor at Callington, and he advised me to go to bed. He thought my case a serious one and hard to of the native press and many of the highest the ranks of the Conservatives, but others which officials believe that in this instance they are which I obtained were of no avail. It completely disinfects the house in which it is used, and, administered internally prevents Cholera, Typhoid Fever, Dysentery, etc.

"Sanitas" Disinfecting Powder is the best air purifier known, and a stronger antiseptic and deodorant than carbolic acid, besides being pleasant and refreshing. "Sanitas" Eucalyptus Soap is specially recommended by the medical faculty for use in hot climates, because of its fine disinfecting qualities and its fragrance.
